MRS. GEORGE B. FORD
29 TYLER COURT
NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

10 - XII - 54.

Dear Director W.C.S.R.

I telephoned the station this morning to ask whether The Northampton Book, instant,
could be tried on your program. I said that it was so largely affair, and by Smith,
so good-looking, and
so perfect as a gift
to father, mother,

Almond

Alma's aunt - as friend. that our Publication Committee believed it would be of interest to your historic public.

I further explained
that it was an entirely non-profit enterprise.
(see circular attached.)
As your assistant's succession, I am leaving this material at your office, hoping that you may find it possible to fix it in - somewhere.

assure.

If you can, the undergraduates will certainly have done their share - Sophians has a nice review in today's issue.

Sincerely yours

Samuel C. Bliss Ford,

1899
member, Centenary History and Publications Committee
